DESCRIPTON

Made exclusively with Listán Blanco from the Canary Islands, it is born under the sky of the Güímar Valley, in plots of vineyards cultivated at 1,400 meters above sea level. The result is a fresh wine, with light fruity and herbaceous notes typical of the variety, which can be enjoyed from now on or kept for a few years thanks to its good aging capacity.

Bright yellow straw with golden notes.

Wine with light fruity and herbaceous notes typical of Listán blanco.

Fresh, with good acidity and depth provided by its aging on lees.
